

Youth Concerts are presented by the Oklahoma City Philharmonic at the Civic Center Music Hall in downtown Oklahoma City.

These 45-minute, school day concerts highlight the sights and sounds of the symphony orchestra.

Under the direction of guest conductor Matthew Fritz, the Philharmonic will perform excerpts of classical standards such as Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 4, as well as more popular music such as "Nimbus 2000" from Harry Potter and The Sorcerer's Stone. This is an excellent opportunity to expose your students to the arts!

These non-ticketed Youth Concerts are offered FREE of charge and suggested for 3rd, 4th and 5th graders, as well as beginning orchestra and band students. In addition to admittance to the concert, teachers who register to participate will receive concert preparation materials for the students, including program notes and a study CD.

Please contact the Philharmonic education coordinator for more information: Katie Kucharski, katie@okcphilharmonic.org or 405-232-7575

Click here to find out more about the Philharmonic's Education and Community opportunities.